IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE CLAIM

Mail Date: 12/20/2021

Dear Jenna N West:

We received your unemployment claim with the effective date of 12/12/2021. The amount of your claim will be based on wages you earned between 07/01/2020 and 06/30/2021. We need you to confirm that the information below includes ALL your wages during that time, and if the employers listed are correct:

Employer	Jul - Sep 2020	Oct - Dec 2020	Jan - Mar 2021	Apr - Jun 2021
*STARBURST ENTERPRISES				$3,289.00

If everything listed above is complete and correct, you do NOT need to contact us. If you have additional employers and/or wages to report, or if corrections are needed, and you have not previously reported this information to us, see the back of this page.

IMPORTANT: This monetary determination will not reflect wages earned out-of-state or wages earned from federal civilian or military service. See Special Instructions for Federal, Military, or Out-of-State Wages on the back of this page.

Based on what we know: If we determine that you are eligible for unemployment benefits, you MAY possibly receive:

Weekly Benefit Amount (WBA): $0.00
Maximum Benefit Amount (MBA): $0.00
Benefit Year begins (BYB): 12/12/2021
Benefit Year End* (BYE): 12/10/2022
*the last date to receive benefits associated with this claim

Does this mean I will receive unemployment benefits? NOT NECESSARILY. Every claim has to be reviewed before a decision can be made. That is why it is important that you send us information on missing wages or employers as soon as possible.

Why not more money? Under state law, the weekly and maximum benefit amounts of your unemployment claim are calculated using wages you earned during the base period of 07/01/2020 to 06/30/2021. The maximum amount of weekly unemployment benefits in Louisiana is $247.00 a week. The maximum amount of time you can receive state funded benefits is 26 weeks.

For more information, such as how the weekly and maximum benefit amounts are calculated, please refer to the Benefits Rights Information (BRI) document on our website, www.laworks.net.

If you have additional employers and/or wages to report, or if corrections are needed – You need to let us know as soon as possible. If any wages are missing, you will need to submit proof of the missing wages (e.g., check stubs, W-2s, etc.). If you did not work for one or more of the employers listed, you will need to provide a copy of a government issued photo ID and your social security card, along with a signed statement advising that the wages do not belong to you. The fastest way you can do this is by logging into HiRE at <https://www.laworks.net/hire/vosnet/Default.aspx> and selecting "Request a Redetermination of Your Benefit Amount" under Unemployment Services on your dashboard.

Can't do it online? Then please complete this form and return it, along with your proof of wages and/or supporting documentation by email to BAT_ADJUSTMENTS@LWC.LA.GOV, by fax to 225-346-6063, or by mail to the return address shown on this form. Check the type of employer in the boxes in the first column. Look on your check stubs or W-2s for the employers' names and mailing addresses. Use an additional page if necessary.

Date

When do I need to respond? The absolute latest date to request a redetermination is 01/13/2022, or this determination becomes final. IMPORTANT: Failure to notify us of missing or incorrect wages may result in an underpayment, overpayment, or possibly even fraud.

Special Instructions for Federal, Military, or Out-of-State Wages - If you reported on your initial claims application that you earned wages in another state or from the federal government (federal civilian or military), then a request has already been submitted for these wages. You will receive notification once we have received the wages. If you earned federal or military wages, you must submit documentation such as check stubs, W-2s, SF-8s, or SF-50s (if federal civilian employer) or DD214s member 4 (for military wages) in order for your claim to be processed. You can submit these documents by e-mail to BAT_ADJUSTMENTS@LWC.LA.GOV or fax to 225-219-1834.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT UNEMPLOYMENT FRAUD THAT YOU SHOULD KNOW

Reporting false information in order to receive unemployment benefits could result in a determination of fraud. If you receive any benefit payments that are later determined to be disqualified, those benefit payments will be determined overpaid. All overpayments of unemployment benefits must be repaid in full. We will automatically recoup any overpayment balances through the offset of future unemployment benefit payments. In addition, LWC reserves the right to assess penalties, garnish your federal and/or state income tax refunds, suspend recreational licenses, and other legal collection actions as prescribed by law. If your overpayment is found to be the result of fraud, you will be disqualified from receiving unemployment benefits from the point the fraudulent act was committed to the end of that claim's benefit year. In addition, you will be disqualified from receiving unemployment benefits for 52 weeks from the date the fraud determination was made.
